- Day 03 : Petra (B/L)

At the end of a breakfast fit for kings lies another exploration that continues the journey in time that you began the day before.

A two-hour visit to Jordan will take you through the winding ways of the Archaeological Museum.

From the arms of history rise the many arts that you will come to explore at the Folklore museum before heading to the Citadel, the blue mosque and the staggering architecture of the amphitheatre. An exploration of architecture is incomplete without the Byzantine and the Umayyad, whose many-hued mosaics, including the map of Jerusalem and the Holy Land, you will explore at the Madaba or “the City of Mosaics”.

The religious may fall to the feet of Moses at his grave in Mount Nebo before praying at the Church that was once erected by the early Christians.

Flush with your encounters with the old arts, enjoy the many delicacies of the Mazayen Nebo for lunch before heading to the Main Hot springs.

While Petra by day is glorious, it does not compare to Petra at night, lit up by 1,800 candles in brown paper bags to light up your way as you walk along the meandering path,

Outside the Siq with Bedouin music playing in the background which creates a mystique and unique moment.

- Day 04 : Wadi Rum (B/L/D)

There is a reason that the ruby red city of Petra is considered Jordan’s most valuable treasure and you will witness it in its full glory on this day.

Remember to not skip breakfast at your hotel because you will need the energy as you begin your exploration of this vast and glorious city that was carved onto sheer rock by the Nabataeans, a group of the most extraordinarily industrious people who once settled here thousands of years ago and turned this land into a hub of silk, spice and trade routes that linked India, China and Southern Arabia with Egypt, Syria, Greece and Rome.

Ride in to this colourful land on horseback through Siq and, after exploring the Treasury, Roman Theatre, Royal Tombs, Court, Qasr Al-Bent and the Church, head to the Basin Restaurant in Petra for a fulfilling lunch whose flavours will make your taste-buds .

After enjoying your lunch at Basin Restaurant in Petra, visit Little Petra, the white one.

Not all siblings resemble each other but each one's quite a character and Little Petra is no exception.

It is shimmering white to Petra's sparkling red and holds many treasures that you might explore on your visit before heading on to Wadi Rum.

An hour's camel ride will let you explore this red planet before you head to the camp for a scrumptious meal and a night of blissful sleep at the camp.
