- Day 03 : Agra - Taj Mahal - Fatehpur Sikri - Jaipur . (240 Kms / 5 hrs) . Overnight in Jaipur (B)

Today morning visit Taj Mahal during the sunrise. Taj Mahal was built by Shah Jahan in 1650 in memory of his queen Mumtaz Mahal to enshrine her mortal remains. This architectural marvel is a perfectly proportioned masterpiece fashioned from white marble that stands testimony to the skill of 20,000 craftsmen brought together from Persia, Turkey, France and Italy and who took 17 year to complete this " Love Poem in Marble".
Return to hotel for breakfast and leave Agra and drive to Jaipur. En route visit, Fatehpur Sikri. Located 40 Kms from Agra, the deserted city of Fatehpur Sikri was built by Emperor Akbar in 1569, in honour of the great Saint Sheikh Salim Chisti who blessed Akbar and prophesied the birth of three sons to the heir less Emperor. Akbar used Fatehpur Sikri as his capital and the city was fully occupied for 14 years but slowly became deserted and ruined after Akbar left the city. Scarcity of water was the prime factor for the abandonment of this beautiful city. Visit the remarkably well-preserved, graceful buildings within the 'Ghost City'; including the Jama Masjid, tomb of Salim Chisti, Panch Mahal Palace and other palaces that speak of the grandeur and splendor of the Mughal empire at the height of its power.

Overnight in Jaipur.

- Day 04 : Jaipur City Tour .Overnight in Jaipur (B)

Morning excursion to Amer fort. Amer is a classic, romantic Rajasthani Fort Palace. The rugged, time-ravaged walls of the Fort may not look beautiful from the outside, but the interior is a virtual paradise. Miniatures painted on the walls depict hunting and war scenes, apart from festivals. Precious stones and mirrors are embedded into the plaster. Visit Amer fort by using Jeep till the fort entrance. Inside the Fort visit the Jag Mandir or the Hall of Victory. Inside the Jag Mandir, the famed Sheesh Mahal – a room with all the four walls and ceiling completely embedded with glittering mirror pieces, which were specially imported from Belgium during that period. Enroute to Amber Fort, you will have a brief photography stop at Hawa Mahal – the Palace of Winds.

Afternoon sightseeing tour of city visiting Maharaja's City Palace, the former Royal residence, part of it converted into a museum. A small portion is still used by the Royal family of Jaipur. Built in the style of a fortified campus, the palace covers almost one-seventh in area of the city. One of the major attractions in the museum is the portion Known as Armoury Museum housing an impressive array of weaponry- pistols, blunderbusses, flintlocks, swords, rifles and daggers the royal families of Jaipur once used most of these weapons. Later visit the Jantar Mantar Which is the largest stone and marble crafted observatory in the world Situated near the gate of the city palace; the observatory has 17 large instruments, many of them still in working condition.
